[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Key West, Fla., Oct. 20.—The Austrian steamer "Jennie" landed here today with forty-nine workmen picked up at sea near the Bahama coast 160 miles from Key West. The men are a part of the force of 150 workmen from the barge engaged on coast extension work. Most of the others were either killed or drowned in the storm Thursday. Nine other barges crowded with workmen, it is feared, have been lost. W. P. Dusenbury, one of the engineers, says that the storm struck at 5 o'clock Thursday morning. An hour later a houseboat went to pieces and thirty or forty men were killed.

ALLEGED MURDERESS OF ELEVEN STARVING SELF

Jane Toppan, The Lowell Nurse, Dying In Insane Hospital--Weight Reduced From 210 To 80.

Taunton, Mass., Oct. 20.—Jane Toppan, the Lowell nurse, who killed a dozen or more persons at various times, is in an extremely weak condition at the insane hospital here and her death is believed to be a question of a very short time. For a year and a half she has practically refused to eat, and her weight has been reduced from 210 pounds to 80.
It was early in 1902 that the case of Jane Toppan attracted the attention of the entire country. In November of the preceding year she had been arrested at Barnstable on a charge of murdering one of her women patients. Soon, however, the investigations of the authorities led them to believe her guilty of other murders. If the woman was guilty of half the murders of which she was strongly suspected she was entitled to a place in criminal annals rivaling that of H. H. Holmes, the Chicago man who was executed for his numerous crimes.
The specific crime for which Miss Toppan was arrested was the poisoning of Mrs. Mary Gibbs at Cataumet, Mass., in August, 1901. Indirectly she was held responsible for the deaths of three other residents of Cataumet at

CHURCH AND STATE MAY BE SEPARATED IN SPAIN

Conflict Between Vatican And Liberal Government Will Come To Focus In Annual Session Of Cortes.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madrid, Oct. 20.—It is safe to assert that no session of the Spanish Cortes in recent years has attracted the attention that will center in the deliberations and actions of the session that was formally opened today. This is because of the conflict between the Vatican and the Liberal Government, which will be brought to a focus at the present session. While the actual question of separation of church and state is not to be immediately raised as in France, the democratic program of the Liberals is distinctly anti-clerical and if it progresses successfully is sure ultimately to lead to an open fight for the severance of the ties which bind the Vatican and Spain, heretofore and now the stronghold of Catholicism.
The points at issue between the Vatican and the Spanish Government are the control of the cemeteries, civil marriages, public education, and the big question of the religious congregations not included in the concordat of 1851. The church opposes the municipal control of cemeteries and demands that the practice of allotting portions of the cemeteries to Spaniards and foreigners who do not subscribe to the state religion shall be discontinued. In respect to the question of civil marriages, the church wishes to have it laid down that civil unions between Spaniards are only legal when celebrated according to canon law, which is absolutely opposed to the actual system. Before, during and since the revolution, civil marriages have always been held to be legal. Further, marriages between Catholics in Catholic churches and chapels must be registered in the civil registers to have any legal validity. Consequently, the clergy are forced either to do this or to have a civil registrar present at the ceremony. Births and deaths are also registered by the civil authorities with wonderfully improved results, as far as the preparation of statistics and proper maintenance of records are concerned.
The attitude of the government toward the religious orders is shown by the new law of associations, which will contain the following provisions: No religious orders shall be established without the authorization of Parliament. The state shall accord support to any member of a religious order desiring to renounce the vows taken. The Minister of Justice is empowered to withdraw the authorization of any religious order found to be inimical to morality or public tranquility. The

VARIOUS EVENTS OF NEXT WEEK IN NEWS FORECAST

Campaign Will Become White Hot In Many States--Conventions And Meetings Scheduled.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—With the general election but two weeks off, politics naturally will absorb much interest during the coming week. In New York the campaign for governor and other state officers will reach the "white-heat" stage. Mr. Hearst, the candidate of the democratic party and the independence League, will continue his whirlwind campaign, speaking one night in Greater New York and the next day jumping away up the state to fill a speaking engagement. Mr. Hughes, the candidate of the republican party for governor, is scheduled to spend the entire week up the state. Elmira, Oswego, Corning, Binghamton and numerous other cities and towns are on his list.
The feature of the republican campaign in New York City during the week will be the meeting in Carnegie hall Monday night, at which the principal speaker will be Secretary Root. Interest in Secretary Root's address is increased by the general belief that he will speak as the personal representative of the President.
Secretary Root is not the only "big gun" that the republicans are sending into the Empire State to combat Hearstism. Sreaker Cannon is billed for several New York addresses during the week. Secretary Shaw will be heard in Utica, Buffalo, Kingston and other places; and one or two other prominent spell-binders probably will be pressed into service.
Meanwhile the campaign in other chussets, where the situation is very muddled but none the less interesting, is being left by both parties to take care of their own troubles. Mr. Bryan will be heard in the Middle West, and

Vice President Fairbanks will push in to the Southwest to offset the influence of the recent Bryan tour in that section.
Stockholders of the Wabash railroad will hold a special meeting at Toledo Monday to vote on the financial plan, which includes as one of its features the retirement of the debenture bonds. Thirty or more governments will be represented at an international congress, relative to the "white slave" traffic, which is to assemble in Paris Monday.
The annual meeting of the Alton railroad, scheduled for Monday, may develop a fight for control between the Harriman and anti-Harriman factions.
The American Mission association will hold its sixtieth annual meeting during the week at Oberlin, Ohio, beginning its sessions Tuesday.
The thirty-fourth annual convention of the National Association of Carriage Builders is expected to attract a large attendance at Atlanta during the week.
The preliminary trial of the battleship Minnesota, built by the Newport News Shipbuilding company, will take place in New England waters Wednesday.
In honor of the 38,000 Illinois soldiers who participated in the campaign and siege of Vicksburg a $200,000 temple monument will be dedicated in the national park at Vicksburg the latter part of the week; the exercises extending over three days. The governors of Illinois, Mississippi and Louisiana will participate.
The formal opening of the new St. Paul's Cathedral in Pittsburg next Wednesday will be attended by Cardinal Gibbons and many other high prelates of the Roman Catholic church.

FRIENDLY

ADVICE

What is cheaper than a word of good advice? Yet how often it followed it proves of priceless service as it did in the case of Wm. Evans, 817 Market St., Scranton, Pa.

Mr. Evans had been suffering for some time from an affection of the stomach. His digestion had become so impaired that his food would rement and caused him no end of trouble.
His health failed rapidly and each day deepened his despair.

His friends noticed and remarked at his decline. One of them told him of the medicine with which L. T. Cooper the philanthropist has been curing disease. "It cured me," said his friend "and I would advise you to try it." The words proved an invaluable suggestion to Mr. Evans who, in speaking of his experience recently, said: "I had tried everything I knew or heard of and was much discouraged when my friend spoke those words.
He was so enthusiastic however, that I purchased a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery and began its use. I found it all he claimed and the greatest stomach medicine I ever heard of. My stomach trouble has disappeared and my digestion is perfect. I can eat anything I feel like and enjoy it."

Cooper's New Discovery cures stomach and kidney trouble, catarrh, deafness, rheumatism and blood diseases and sells for one dollar per bottle.

Cooper's Quick Relief sells for fifty cents. At E. B. Heimstreet's drug store, where the medicines are sold in this city, it is said that the demand for them is phenomenal.

From a money making standpoint the little "Want Ad" often surpasses the fondest expectation of the advertiser. Think of a 25c or 50c investment making a sale of land or property which runs into the hundreds or thousands of dollars. There is no end to the availability of these columns; there is not a thing which cannot be bought or sold through them; not a deal but that can be brought to a successful termination; not a desire in fact but that can be satisfied. Not a few of the people but the greater share of the public rub shoulder daily through the Want Columns. The very item which you have to dispose of somebody else needs. You can telephone your Want today if you cannot send or bring it.

NOTE—The rate on classified advertisements in the Daily Gazette is 3 lines 3 times 25c; the same rate applies also to the Semi-Weekly Gazette, so that for 50c you may reach 30,000 readers in this vicinity.

Lackaye's Caustic Reply to Lipton.
When Sir Thomas Lipton hits New York in a couple of weeks he will be convinced by the Lambs, who are going to give him a rambol. Wilton Lackaye, the new gambler, will be the official host of the club. The other evening at the Chicago Athletic club, when there was a banquet given to the cup-hunting baronet, Lackaye dropped in after his performance of "The Law and the Man" and sat next to the great tea merchant. They had met before, and the sparks flew. "You are meeting with success in your attempt to outgusto Hugo," said Sir Thomas, and his imperial curled with glee. "Not half so much as you are in advertising Ceylon tea via challenges for the America cup," was the response, amid a roar of laughter. Lackaye was last seen in Janesville on the 3d of last February when he appeared in "The Pit." There is a possibility that he may be engaged to present his dramatization of "Les Miserables" in this city.

Janesville Daily Gazette, Saturday, October 20, 1886. The Mass Meeting. The Republican Mass Meeting yesterday was decidedly successful in every particular. The day was one of the most pleasant on the calendar, the audience as large as a man could talk to, and the speaking was interesting and to the point. The speeches of Judge Patterson of Tennessee and Matt H. Carpenter were in the best vein of both these orators, although the Judge consumed more time than he should have, leaving but an hour for Mr. Carpenter to discuss the important issues now before the people.

The music was furnished by the band of this city and the Hutchinson family who kindly sang a couple of appropriate political songs which put the audience in the best of humor. The meeting was presided over by Mayor Palmer in a most acceptable manner, and in the evening another was held in Lippin's hall and addressed by General Smith. Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Ross also made a few remarks; but as the hall had been engaged for a concert, they did not speak at any length.

The Horse Fair.
Friday, the third day, opened clear and fine for the stock association of this country, and they may well congratulate themselves on the one point.

that they have had the best show of last horses that Janesville has ever seen. The only point in which they fell behind is the slim attendance on the grounds during the three days' races. The rain of yesterday and last night did not injure the track in the least, except about four rods in front of the judges stand, which was quite wet and heavy. The crowd on the grounds today was about the same as yesterday, but the interest manifest was about tenfold.

A Mine That Made Good

In July of last year a company known as the Sheffer Development Company, was organized to work a leasehold in the Wisconsin Lead and Zinc field, a valuable piece of property of limited extent, and which gave promise of giving back handsome returns on the money invested in it.

The Company was composed of the following gentlemen, and I wish to call attention to the fact in advance, that each man in the Company was selected for his individual worth to the Company. The selection was not made haphazard, or because some one man had money enough to buy an interest in this property, but rather with the idea that each man should be a cog in a great wheel, and work in harmony with his brother officers and directors. The officers and directors of the Company are as follows:

PRESIDENT—James E. Jopling, Chief Mining Engineer and Geological Expert the Cleveland Cliff Mining Co., Ishpeming, Mich.
VICE-PRESIDENT—Wallace H. Hopkins, Stock Broker, Chicago.
SECRETARY AND TREASURER—A. J. Hungbluth, Auditor, Cleveland Cliff Mining Co., Ishpeming, Mich.
DIRECTORS—F. A. Harper, Attorney, Chicago; C. T. Hampton, Stock and Bond Broker, Iron Mountain, Mich.; D. T. Morgan, Superintendent of Mines and a Director of Miners' National Bank, Republic, Mich.; James Clancy, Master, Mechanic, of the U. S. Steel Co., and Oliver Iron Mining Co., Ishpeming, Mich.; E. C. Anthony, a mining man of wide experience, and a Capitalist, Negaunee, Mich.; James M. Rough, Assistant Superintendent of all the mines of the Cleveland Cliff Mining Co., on the Marquette Range, Negaunee, Mich.; R. A. McKinney, Purchasing Agent of the American Sheet & Tin Plate Co., and a Director of the Pittsburgh Benton Mining Co., of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Capt. G. A. Anderson, Mining Foreman of the Cleveland Cliffs Mining Co., Negaunee, Mich.

If you will make a note of the occupation of these gentlemen, you will see how carefully the selection has been. We have a superintendent of mines and a banker, a master mechanic, a mining man, another mining man, superintendent of a great mining corporation, a purchasing agent of the Tin Plate Co., also a well posted mining man, a director in one of the large mines of Pittsburgh, and we have a mining foreman, a man who knows the detail work of a mine and has made a success of it.

The Sheffer Development Co. was capitalized for $10,000, with its shares par value of One Hundred Dollars. The price of those shares today is $350 bid—none for sale.

I had my eye on another tract in the same district as the Sheffer, a large tract, the Spensley property, comprising 110 acres about two miles south of Benton, Wis., a property that is surrounded by the following mines: "Fox," "Big Dad," "Rowley," "Kennedy," "Mills," "New Jersey Lead and Zinc," "Jack of Diamonds," "Jack of Clubs," "Empress," "Monarch," "Ida Blende," "Blende," "Star," "Whaley," "Emerald," "Rooney-Swift," "Occidental," "Jug Handle," "Chicago Benton," "Murphy," and "New Deal."

There are many more mines in various stages of development surrounding this property. In fact, there are more producers within a radius of five miles of this proposition than in any other similar sized area in the field, and early in the summer we took an option on the property, waiting in the meantime to see what the developments in the Sheffer would be. Meanwhile, I went to Goldfield to look over the situation out there and incidentally bought a piece of property that looked good to me in Manhattan. While I was away the Sheffer had broken all records in its ore showing, and experimental development work on the Spensley, showed that we would simply be losing valuable time if we failed to get to work on this tract.

In September last the officers and directors of the Sheffer Development Co. met at Ishpeming, Mich., and organized The Spensley Mining Co., with a capital of $100,000, divided into 100,000 shares (20,000 shares being left in the treasury) of the par value of One Dollar each, and at that meeting 26,600 shares were subscribed for by the Sheffer crowd. Since then the subscriptions have come in at such a rate that there remains today only about 20,000 shares to be sold, and the purpose of this advertisement is to give our friends in Wisconsin and Michigan a chance to come in with us on this splendid investment.

What I want to make clear is, that while the Sheffer was a development company, THIS IS A MINING COMPANY, fairly capitalized, AND THE MEN BEHIND THE MINE ARE MINERS AND BUSINESS MEN—men who know the mining business and have made a success of it, and who propose to make the Spensley Mining Co. one of the greatest properties in the lead and zinc field today. We propose to equip this property with machinery and mill, and to carry on development work extensively, AND TO DO IT RIGHT AWAY. We have the money—we have the men, and we propose to begin our dividend-paying next June, unless something unforeseen comes up in the meantime that no man, or set of men, could guard against.

We have a property here that has a valuation in ore deposits of more than a Million Dollars. Assays show 14.33 per cent zinc, or about 20 per cent Jack.

Now then, when one considers that a 5 per cent showing will pay handsome dividends with judicious management, it won't take an investor long to form an idea of what we can do with our showing.

We have got two cracker jack men up at the mines in Edward and William Longhenry. These men are perhaps two of the best posted men in Wisconsin on lead and zinc.

The milling and shipping facilities at the Spensley are unsurpassed. A railroad adjoins the property, and a side track can easily be put in, which will entirely eliminate the expense of hauling coal and ore to and from the mines—a serious item when a mine is located six to eight miles from a railroad.

Our drills are working all the time proving up the property.

Already we have a zinc ore body 600 feet in length, which shows from 8 to 31 feet in thickness.

We have a shaft down 8x9 nearly 20 feet.

We have 15 men at work on the property.

Blacksmith shops, tool houses, shaft houses, and quarters for the men have already been constructed, and the machinery necessary for the equipment of the mine has been ordered.

When we start out to do things we make good, because we know the business that we are engaged in. We are practical men, and we don't propose to wait all summer before we start in to make good, either. There are a number of good properties in Wisconsin that only need aggressive tactics to make them produce, but the men back of them don't know how to go about the work. That is the whole sum and substance of the matter.

Lead and zinc mining is supposed to be flourishing today. Fortunes are being made and have been made; but I want to go on record personally, to say to you, that none of us have any appreciation of what the lead and zinc industry will be in two years from now.

In my opinion, the property such as we have here is a priceless possession, and we can't estimate its ultimate value as a dividend producer, but in the meanwhile we will lose no time in hurrying the dividend period. In my opinion it will come about June 1st, 1907.

I have told you that all that remains of this stock is about 20,000 shares. I may be able to fill orders, but won't guarantee to do so, as the balance of these shares may be taken up in a day, so if you want to come in with a successful crowd and reap the benefit of our experience in the mining industry and buy these shares which are selling at their par value of One Dollar each, MY ADVICE WOULD BE TO WIRE YOUR SUBSCRIPTIONS TODAY TO ANY ONE OF MY OFFICES.

Every dollar that comes to us goes into the development of the mines. There is no promotion stock, no commissions are being paid—our clients get the usual square deal.

Any further information, prospectus, application blanks, etc., will be furnished upon application.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT

In this age of reform, when everything is being revamped from the Standard Oil company to the democratic party, it is not at all surprising that the old Bible, which has stood the test of centuries, should come in for its share of criticism.

That this criticism should come from the "higher critics" would naturally be expected, for they belong to the class which is doing so much today to save the world from premature destruction. Theological muck-rakers are one notch higher up in the scale than Lawson, Tarbell, Steffens,

Baker, and the long list of world-purifies in the commercial, political and social field, but fired by the same lofty ambition to reform everything in sight.

The Bible, like the railroad, never talks back. It requires neither brain nor culture to attack the latter, and so everybody takes a whirl at the rate bill, the rebate, and the demoralizing pass, but the railroad keeps on doing business for the benefit of humanity.

So the Bible, with its beacon light penetrating the dark corners and its admonitions and promises holding and comforting the race, goes on with steady purpose fulfilling its sacred mission.

The masses believe in the Bible;

they accept the miracles and mysteries without question because it was the book of books in the old home, and the Bible and the mother are inseparable memories.

The old family Bible, yellow with age and dusty from neglect, is still the heirloom in many a home, and its authority is never questioned. The code of laws on the tablet of stone brought down by Moses from the mountain, is recognized as the standard of moral conduct and people of all classes pay tribute.

Someone asked an old lady if she really believed that the whole swallowed Jonah. She replied indignantly,

"Of course I do, for the Bible says

so; and I would believe the Bible if it said that Jonah swallowed the whale."

That is the kind of faith that is stronger than argument and it is largely universal. It is a sublime faith which has to do with the "one and only book which reveals anything of the life beyond." To the believer it is a chart which inspires implicit confidence, and to mankind in general it commands respect and reverence.

To disturb this faith is next to a crime and is so regarded by some of the best thinkers and Bible scholars in the land.

A devout old shoemaker, who believed that every word of the Bible was literally true and who translated it to suit himself, was defending his position one day in the presence of a noted theologian. The scholar turned away with a smile and said:

"I wouldn't say anything to disturb that old man's faith for the world. The Bible is a veritable light to his path.

It will guide him safely along the journey and land him close to the pearly gates."

If the Bible satisfies humanity to so large an extent, why should it not satisfy the "higher critic?" This is the question which is puzzling some of the best brain of the country, and in attempting to solve it the American Bible League has been organized.

The Chicago branch of this league will hold a three days' meeting at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium in Chicago commencing October 29.

This organization, while not assuming to oppose any reasonable effort toward intelligent interpretation of the Bible, is composed of men who vigorously oppose a destructive criticism which they allege to be undermining the faith of those who accept its teachings. In other words, the so-called "higher criticism," insofar as it discredits the Bible as the directly inspired word of God, meets their stern disapproval, and they are actively engaged in speaking and writing to encourage the faith of those who cling to the orthodox beliefs.

William Phillips Hall, a wealthy manufacturer of New York city, is president of the league and will be one of the speakers at the Chicago meeting. The vice-president is Henry B. F. Macfarland, a well-known Washington newspaper correspondent and one of the commissioners of the District of Columbia. Many other ministers, educators and laymen of prominence are included in the organization.

A long list of prominent speakers of almost every religious faith will take part in the meeting and all sessions are open to the public.

The time will doubtless be spent in defending a book which needs no defense, rather than in analyzing the little coterie of critics and denouncing them as they deserve.

What is a "higher critic" anyway? From a theological standpoint he is a cross between an angel and a resident of this mundane sphere, occupying a pedestal in the region of the clouds. A little too good for earth, but not quite good enough for translation, he vibrates between the two hemispheres and imagines that if every wagon was hitched to a star navigation would be less difficult.

The "higher critic," whether in the realm of theology, literature, science, art, commerce or politics, is not a producer. He is simply a disturber, more numerous today in every department than ever before.

He is the busiest man that ever came over the pike and every last representative of the class from Bryan to Tom Lawson poses as a martyr and imagines that he has a John Brown mission to fulfill.

The modern Bible critic is amazed to think that people have lived and died so well for centuries with a revelation so imperfect.

The other critics pose as reformers and they have discovered that everything needs it. Between the two, the atmosphere is so befogged that old landmarks are lost to view, and the ship of state as well as the craft of the church is in danger of running on the shoals.

The Bible defenders will do well to let the Bible take care of itself and go after the men who attack it.

THE INTERURBAN FRANCHISE

The question of the interurban franchise is to come before an adjourned meeting of the council next Monday evening, action being deferred at the last regular meeting at the request of Mr. Clough.

It now appears that J. F. Schindler, a mine promoter, is on the ground stating that he represents capitalists who desire to secure an interurban franchise and build the road to Madison.

Mr. Schindler, of course, has a right to be heard, but the council will not overlook the fact that the city is under some obligations to Mr. Clough, and that on the strength of promises made to him early in the season money has been freely expended on preliminary work.

The Clough proposition also includes taking over the local line and putting it in first-class condition. This will prove of great benefit to the city and unless it is done in connection with the interurban system it will never be done, for the line can never be made to pay as an independent proposition.

Mr. Clough has a reputation for doing things, and the fact that he has invested time and money before filing his formal application for a franchise, is evidence of good faith. There is no question of either his intention or ability to put the enterprise through.

While competition is the life of trade it is sometimes the death of an enterprise. What Janesville wants is the road to Madison and the revamping of the local system. It now has the opportunity to secure both by granting to Mr. Clough the franchise which he was promised some months ago. The council will make no mistake in carrying out the agreement.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY

Bishop Joseph P. Berry of the Methodist Episcopal church addressed the new ministers who were being admitted to full membership by the Rock River conference at Chicago last week. The bishop talked about good citizenship and delivered one remark that should be especially studied by church men everywhere. "Good government is the most important thing in the immediate range of man's endeavor," said Bishop Berry. "If the primary election and prayer meeting come the same night, the righteous man's business is at the primary."

Continuing Bishop Berry said: "It would have been forty years ago, and may yet be so, considered, in some quarters, to proclaim that a vote at the ballot box is more important than a prayer meeting. But we should be practical enough never to lose sight of the aim of the righteous to vanquish evil. In these momentous and stormy times we should do the work of good citizenship during these hours and in those places in which alone it can be effectively done. Then we can return to our prayer meetings and give thanks to God that the forces of evil are curbed, at least, if not completely vanquished. There is not a city in the nation in which legalized social impurities could not be suppressed at civic elections if the religious and good-government forces would only go out and do it."

Senator La Follette stirred up a hornet's nest among the Norwegians in Minnesota by attacking their United States senator for not voting with him on the rate bill. The new senator is no longer riding on the crest of the wave. It's a long lane that runs straight forever.

The Milwaukee Journal devotes a column to the milk train, called an "accommodation," which runs between Janesville and Milwaukee. This train has been a burlesque for years and no one attempts to go to the Cream City and return the same day. The trip to Chicago is pleasanter and easier and Chicago gets the trade.

Oshkosh elected a strong committee on good roads and Winnebago county will be in line with the procession. The people are engaged in a good work and results are bound to follow.

THAT INTERURBAN LINE

By Charles Patterson.

A man named Clough came here one day.

To try and build a new railway.

There's no reason why it shouldn't go.

The backers have all kinds of doubt.

He said, I'll take your street-car line.

And fix the poor old thing up fine; We'll have new cars, I tell you boys.

That run on time without much noise.

The council then met Clough one night.

They said your franchise seems all right.

We'll wait and see what you will do.

Now, Mr. Clough, it's up to you.

It didn't take Clough long they say.

To collar all the right-of-way.

Then came his men with link and pin.

They set the stakes and drove 'em in.

You should have seen the farmers smile.

We'll ride to town, they said, in style.

And all the folks from far and near.

Will go to Janesville for their beer.

When Clough thought he'd everything all right.

The council met again one night.

They talked the franchise over and over.

Then took the key and locked the door.

They talked about it all night long.

Some thought they saw things that were wrong.

But when Clough heard what they had said.

He telephoned: "The thing is dead."

Oh! how some people then did kick.

Say, wouldn't that just make you sick?

One man said: "Tshaw! that's nothing new."

That's just the way we always do."

ment, in which it advocates the revival of the use of the ancient sacramental rite of unction. The argument is made that the age of miracles has not passed away, that the power of healing and other miraculous gifts are still present with the priests of the Episcopal faith; that the Christ who went about in Galilee healing both soul and body does the same thing today through his body, the church. The reason ascribed for the revival of the ancient sacramental rites is that it will serve to prevent the inroads which are being made in the ranks of the faithful by Christian Scientists, followers of Joseph Smith and other combinations who are taking advantage of the prerogatives which the church has dropped.

"Prom" Fuss Mostly Reportorial

Madison Democrat: Possibly the junior prom fuss is not the merest tempest in a teapot, but to most persons of calm temperament it seems just that and nothing less. The whole issue is fictitious, superficial, nonsensical. No really honest demand has been heard in favor of changing the existing character of the function. The little talk in regard to the matter is wholly reportorial, and shaded very deeply with ochre at that. It is entirely doubtful if a so-called "economical prom" would be either popular or successful. Young men who are unwilling to invest $6 in a really swagger hop will hardly manifest any larger degree of enthusiasm in a $3 affair; and even if the attendance were greatly increased by reason of the lower rate the very jam naturally would spoil the ball for all. So long as the junior prom is conducted with propriety and decorum that cannot be questioned in the slightest particular, it is a strange proceeding indeed that would deliberately curtail its beauty and elegance by enforcing such restrictions as must seriously affect the most important of the decorative and artistic effects.

DETAILS OF THE ALABAMA FIRE

MYSTERY SURROUNDS BLAZE IN BOARDING HOUSE.

TWO HURT BY JUMPING

Inmates Have Great Difficulty in Escaping from the Burning Structure; Five Boys Being Blamed for Destruction.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 20.—It is believed that all of the bodies have been recovered from the building destroyed by fire Thursday night on Third avenue.

The total dead stands at ten, with two men so seriously injured by jumping that they may not recover.

The origin of the fire is still a mystery, although the consensus of opinion seems to be that the house was set on fire.

There were 21 boarders in the house, almost all of whom were street railway employees. In addition there were three other persons, Mrs. Watley and her two sons. All have been accounted for.

Coroner Paris has organized a jury to hold an inquest over the bodies.

Sheriff Burgh has wired the governor for a commission to investigate the fire, as the circumstances are very mysterious. The sheriff will work in conjunction with the coroner. The investigation will be begun Monday.

Dead and Injured.

The dead: W. N. Nichols, street car conductor; D. B. Neal, street car conductor; W. B. Taylor, street car motorman; G. C. Preston, conductor; Edward Caldwell, motorman; E. D. Henshaw, conductor; George D. Burns, motorman; Wm. T. Hall, conductor; W. B. Livingston, rolling mill man; Olle H. Hines, employee, Birmingham Flint Glass company.

The injured: C. E. Heintch, street car conductor; G. W. Troutman, motorman; C. E. Keith, street railway employee.

Victims in Second Story.

All the dead and injured occupied rooms on the second story of the house. The flames enveloped the entire building when the fire was discovered and it was with the greatest difficulty that the persons on the lower floors made their escape. They saved nothing. Every piece of furniture in the house was burned.

The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. Burglars have been detected on the premises twice within the last two months and Mrs. Watley thinks the house was burglarized and then set on fire. Thieves were discovered at work during the progress of the flames and the police were called to keep guard. The ten charred bodies are at the morgue, where it is impossible to tell one from the other. The names given are those of the missing, the number corresponding with the number of corpses found.

Preparing for Opening of New Lands.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The regulations of the general land office for opening up the lands included in the big pasture, in the former Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Indian reservations in Oklahoma, were issued. The lands are to be opened under the homestead laws and any person eligible to acquire land under these laws may bid for the Indian lands, the minimum price for which is to be $5 per acre.

TO UPHOLD LIABILITY ACT

UNITED STATES TO INTERVENE WHEN CASE IS CALLED.

Government Plans to Aid in Supporting Constitutional, Validity and Interpretation of Law.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Attorney General Moody Friday made a statement announcing, with the president's approval, that when the first case under the employers' liability act is tried he intends to ask leave to intervene in the case to support the constitutionality, validity and interpretation of the law. The statement follows:

"It has come to my knowledge that it will be claimed in court that the employers' liability act, passed by the congress last winter, by which a remedy is afforded to all employees of the interstate railroads for death or injury incurred in their service through the negligence of interstate railroads or any of its employees, is beyond the constitutional powers of congress and therefore void.

"It is my intention to ask leave of the court, in which the first case under this law is tried, to intervene, not upon the questions of fact, but for the purpose of supporting the constitutionality, validity and interpretation of the law.

"This intervention finds a precedent in the leave given by the supreme court to this department to intervene in a private case arising under the safety appliance law. Under this intervention, in the case of Johnson against the Southern Pacific company, the judgments of the circuit court and circuit court of appeals were reversed and the law plainly interpreted and made effective by the judgment of the supreme court.

"This, of course, has received the approval of the president."

"It is understood that when the attorney general decided to intervene in these cases he was in possession of information that many of the railroads had decided to enter upon a systematic effort to break down the law. This conclusion is said to have been reached at a meeting of railroad attorneys held in Louisville, Ky., a month ago. It is expected that a test suit will be brought soon in Kentucky and another in New Jersey.

STORM IN CENTRAL AMERICA

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Cattle and Crops Reported.

San Salvador, Oct. 20.—A tempest has raged incessantly for ten days throughout the republic, flooding the rich valleys, principally that of Majada, and resulting in great loss of life and destruction of cattle and crops.

The Salvadorean man-of-war Izalco was lost at Acapulco.

The topography of various departments has been changed, buildings have fallen, burying their tenants in the ruins, and the iron bridges over the principal rivers have been carried away.

Up to Wednesday 15,000,000 tons of water had fallen. The aqueducts and electric light plants at Sonsonate and Salvador have suffered heavy losses.

The storm is raging. The railroads, telegraph and commerce are paralyzed, but traffic is being restored in some towns of the republic. The water mains at some places have disappeared.

The rivers are bringing down the bodies of persons drowned in the storm and the carcasses of cattle, and the sight of them tend to increase the terror of the people.

Guatemala and Honduras also have suffered severely. It is said the losses there will amount to many millions of dollars.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 20.—United States District Attorney Oscar Lawler Friday afternoon started the machinery of the United States government in an investigation of the Santa Fe rebate situation in southern California.

These officials are directed to appear before the United States grand jury with books and papers as exhibits bearing on freight rate charges, agreements and arrangements.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is a remarkable nerve tonic and stimulant. It strengthens the nerves, relieves the nervous strain, and influences refreshing body-building sleep and rest. Persistent use seldom fails to relieve these afflictions.

"I was taken with epileptic fits; had eleven in less than 12 hours. My father sent for our family physician, but he could do very little for me, and I grew worse every day, and at last they had three doctors with me, and I still got worse. My father heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine and bought a bottle of Nervine and a box of Dr. Miles' Liver Pills. I had taken only a few doses until I began to feel better. I took 12 bottles, and I can now go to work and do all my usual work and feel well. It has been worth all the world to me. I recommend it wherever I go. You may use this as a life-long testimonial to the merits of your medicine, for I am enjoying the best of health, and feel that my life and health is due to this wonderful medicine."

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May be Sapping Your Life Away. Jansville People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all.

Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Jansville testimony to prove it.

Mrs. Joseph Gower of 6 Park Ave., Jansville, Wis., says:

"Dull aching and pain in the loins often extended around to my sides and there seemed to be no relief from the misery it brought me. Sometimes I was actually unfit for work I used liniments and hot applications and tried various remedies but all the time I was growing worse. Finally I saw Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in our papers and got a box at the People's Drug Co. They gave me some relief almost instantly and in a few days after taking the first dose the backache and misery left me. I gained, and since then have had no return of the trouble."

Tokyo Exposition in 1912 Exchange: Among the ideas which Japan has assimilated through contact with the nations of the western world is the idea of industrial exhibitions. Her government has appropriated 10,000,000 yen for the enterprise of this character to be held in Tokio in 1912.

Cigaret Stubs Under Carrie's Bed. Milwaukee Free Press: "After Carrie Nardson had occupied a bedroom at Trinidad, Colo., for the night, the maid discovered cigarette stumps on the floor under the bed, and is wondering who put them there. Carrie must be an old smoker to dispose of her stumps in the regulation way. And thus does another idol topple on its foundation!"

MORTUARY MENTION.

Luella Gaarder. At one o'clock Monday, Oct. 15, at the home of her parents, near Orfordville, Luella, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Gaarder, passed away. Always cheerful, faithful to every duty, forgetful of self and anxious to be of service to others, she greatly endeared herself to her family and friends. Luella was a graduate of the Janesville high school, class of 1902. In 1903 she entered the Milwaukee State Normal. Almost over-consciousness in efforts to do her work well, her health failed in the spring of the second year of her course and she was obliged to return home. Skilled physicians were consulted and under the watchful care of her devoted family she seemed to be regaining her health when a sudden change and complication in her condition brought her life to a full promise to an end at the age of 23 years and 2 days. On Thursday, Oct. 18, after brief services at her home, sympathizing and loving friends accompanied the bereaved family to the East-church. While Rev. B. A. and Rev. Kvale spoke words of comfort and tender sympathy her beautiful, pure, Christian life was in the minds of all a sweet and helpful memory. The white casket, almost covered with a profusion of flowers was tenderly carried by her brothers to its final resting place in the little cemetery by the church. There are left to mourn her loss besides her parents, four brothers, Perry, Arthur, Otto and Frederick, and three sisters, Nellie and Bertha of Orfordville and Mrs. Walter F. Walker of Racine.

Cornelius S. Decker. All that is mortal of the late Cornelius S. Decker was tenderly laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery this afternoon. The funeral services were held from the home in the town of Rock at half-past two o'clock. Dr. Brown, for many years pastor of the Presbyterian church here and now a resident of Beloit, officiating. The pallbearers were grandsons of the deceased.

Youthful Victim of Cupid. A woman living in Rome recently found in the breast pocket of her 12-year-old son a love letter from a girl of 11. She spanked him appropriately and locked him in his room for the day. On unlocking the door she found the little chap dead, from taking a cup of poison.

UNHOOKING THE ELUSIVE EEL

Ingenuous Angler Asserts. Hypnotic Method is Best.

It isn't so hard to catch an eel. Not infrequently you will land one when you are fishing for something else. But getting him off the hook without having your line tangled and tied into innumerable knots—aye, that's the rub! When Isaac Walton wrote his treatise on the gentle art of angling, he overlooked the eel. Yet the possibilities of this squirming fish in developing patience in the fisherman are infinite. The average angler, when he has hooked one, can do nothing more than rub his hand in the dirt till it is rough with grime, seize the eel by the neck and club him to death. Meanwhile his line is all snarls and tangles.

But an ingenious angler, with the nervous system of the eel in mind, has discovered a better way. The eel, properly handled, may be soothed and put into an immediate state of calm simply by rubbing him gently on the spinal column with a match or small stick. Indeed, no one who has hypnotized a crab by rubbing between the eyes will doubt for a moment that the eel may somewhat similarly be put to sleep.

It is the only effective way to detach an eel from the hook. Try it!

THE MAN WHO IS AHEAD.

Proper Tribute Paid to Worthy Member of Community.

In almost every newspaper you pick up you are pretty sure to find a lot of gush about the man behind the counter and the man behind the gun, the man behind the buzz-saw and the man behind the times and the man behind the rents; the man behind the plowshare and the man behind the fence; the man behind the whistle and the man behind the cars; the man behind the kodak and the man behind the bars; the man behind his whiskers and the man behind his fists; and everything is entered on the list.

But they've skipped another fellow of whom nothing has been said—the fellow who is even, or a little way ahead; who pays for what he gets, whose bills are always signed. He's a blamed sight more important than the man who is behind. All the editors and merchants, and the whole commercial clan, are indebted for existence to this honest fellowman. He keeps us all in business, and his town is never dead; and so we take off our hats to the man who is ahead.

Bees in Store. A swarm of bees on Water street took possession of a store in Auburn and furnished amusement to a large crowd of spectators that gathered on the opposite side of the street, says the Utica Observer.

The bees resisted any intrusion, and anybody who came within ten feet of the window and awning where they swarmed received a sting or two. Victims were plentiful, and the cruel spectators, out of harm's way, took gleeful glee at the victim's antics as one after another was driven up the street followed by a part of the swarm.

One man strolling leisurely along came into contact with one of the sharp points on the end of a bee, and his surprise was so vigorously evidenced that he attracted the attention of the entire swarm, and, thrusting his umbrella right and left, he beat an ignominious retreat, accompanied by a delegation of the insects. The sidewalk was covered with dead bees. The arrival of a thunderstorm effectually drove the bees to cover.

Pianos From Factory to You Direct

The Expense of Store and Business Clipped From the Price to You—Pianos of High Reputation, Every One Guaranteed.

Perhaps you are in need of a fine Piano. If so, talk to H. F. NOTT, the reliable piano dealer. I am out of the store but not out of the piano business, and can furnish you a piano direct from the factory at a much less price than as if I carried a stock. The large expense attached to the handling of business from a store is entirely done away with and the saving is the purchaser's gain.

Just let me know when you are in the market for a Piano and I will do the rest. It is so easy to buy a Piano when you start right. I make a specialty of selling good Pianos—those that stay in tune long and are made as near perfect as it is possible to make them; those that have beautiful tone quality and the best action made in America. This is the kind of a Piano you should buy; then you will be happy as far as the piano trouble goes. I guarantee satisfaction or no sale. The Pianos that I would call your special attention to are as follows:

NEWMAN BROS. PIANO, manufactured in Chicago.

LESTER PIANO, manufactured at Lester, Pa.

HARDMAN PIANO, manufactured at New York, N. Y.

AUTOTONE PIANO, manufactured at New York, N. Y.

I would also call your attention to the Autotone Piano, a piano in which the tone can be produced automatically. In this instrument we have the piano player within the case, and the size of the Autotone Piano is not much larger than the regular upright piano. It is simply wonderful the rapidity with which it can be changed from the ordinary piano and back again. But the most important thing is the piano itself. In purchasing, one naturally looks into the quality of the piano, and we are proud to be able to offer the Hardman Autotone piano and the Harrington Autotone piano. Prices: $475.00, $500.00 and $600.00. The summer season just ended has demonstrated time and again the splendid wearing qualities of the Hardman and Harrington Autotone Player-pianos. These instruments subjected to the very trying climate of the Jersey and Long Island coasts have completely resisted the extremely moist weather of this summer, and the usual dampness of the ocean's side. Buyers desiring the best value for their money can not conscientiously overlook the many merits of these matchless instruments. I have just recently sold one of these Autotone pianos here in the city, and to say that it works fine is not enough. You must see and hear it then you can judge for yourself. If you have no piano in your home this is just what you want and if you have a piano and no one to play it, I can sell you a piano player which will give you all the fine music you wish. If you are in want of a piano or player of some kind drop me a postal and I will call or send for a catalogue of piano or piano player. I am in want of a good square piano in exchange for an upright. Call up new phone, red 725.
